He is a direct descendant on his father's side, the seventh generation, of Louis Bevier, who came from France in 1675, and who was one of the twelve patentees who received from Governor Andros in 1677 a grant of land for the original Huguenot settlement in New Paltz, Ulster County, N. Y. He was born on April 22, 1857, at Marbletown, Ulster County, N. Y., on the farm which has belonged to his family since 1715. He received his preparation for college by private instruction at Marbletown and at Stone Ridge, N. Y. While in college he won a number of prizes, and in particular the intercollegiate prize in Greek in the year 1878. He graduated with highest scholarship honors. After graduation, he studied at Johns Hopkins University for three years, graduating in 1881 with the degree of Ph.D., and then spent several years in study abroad, at the Universities of Leipzig and Bonn, 1881-82, and at...

Reviews

This book is definitely not straightforward to get started on studying but extremely exciting to read. It is really simplistic but shocks in the 50 percent of the ebook. Once you begin to read the book, it is extremely difficult to leave it before concluding.
