By Arun Rawat

Createspace, United States, 2013. Paperback. Book Condition: New. Large Print. 198 x 129 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****.A special collection of stories from a twisted storyteller With his incursion into story writing, Arun brings along his unmatched skills as a twisted educator. So in 15 degrees off. an unexpected journey awaits you, fraught with unpredictable classic twists to bemuse and bedazzle. Walk slow and travel along its untrodden roads and you are sure to stumble upon a part of yourself. Don t they say . the greatest journeys are those that lead to discovering oneself? The rather off beat title is a reflection into the stories and some of them will remain with you forever. Like the classic noir opener Crimeborg 2.0, which deals with a FBI secret I dare not talk about. Another of my favorite The Burden is a heartwarming story of two brothers and their relationship with a father they have never actually met. The author writes with compelling style and verve, flirting with various techniques. Like the story of a little boy waiting anxiously for his father; Silent Hopes makes use of the flashback to create mystery. The dark...
