

God Loves Haiti: A Short Overview of Hope for Today Outreach (Paperback)

By Celucien L Joseph

Createspace, United States, 2015. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 216 x 140 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . God Loves Haiti: A Short Overview of Hope for Today Outreach provides an outline of the philosophy of Hope for Today Outreach and the organization's work in Haiti among the poor and the needy. Based on biblical principles and theological insights, it articulates a forceful argument for engaging in Christian mission and social outreach in our communities and beyond our geographical borders in overseas-with the goal to empower individuals to reach their full potential and to contribute to their social and spiritual development. More particularly, God Loves Haiti makes a strong statement about the biblical mandate to remember the poor (Galatians 2:10), clothe the naked, feed the hungry, visit the prisoner, and care for the oppressed, the sick, homeless, widow, elderly, the orphan, etc. The book is based on five biblical principles and imperatives that reflect God's character and active participation in the human drama, and the overarching liberative message of the Bible: (1) God's righteousness and heart for justice, (2) care for the hungry and afflicted is a public demonstration of living out...
