Excerpt from Proceedings of a Conference on Taxation in Indiana, Vol. 12: Held at Indiana University, Bloomington, Indiana February 5 and 6, 1914

Thursday, February 5 - Morning Session [The conference met in the auditorium at the Student Building of Indiana University, at 10:30 a.m., and was called to order by Dr. William Lowe Bryan, President of the University.] Dr. Bryan: A notable lecturer once said here before our students that mankind had two chief interests, money and religion. Now this week we have both of these interests represented here, one of them in a conference of the religious workers in the state universities, and this one, this tax conference; and I make this remark in the outset because I wish to explain that it will be necessary for me to retire at once from this conference in order to introduce a speaker in the other one. The Latin historian Livy relates that when the Gauls were about to capture and destroy Rome some four hundred years before Christ, the people decided to have the best of...
