An oversight gap exists. NASAA members, State securities regulators are fully prepared and equipped right now to fill this gap by accepting responsibility for the oversight of investment advisers up to 100 million in as-sets under management. Investors can walk into our offices so that proximity ensures accessibility. Plus, NASAA members are the only regulators that actually license the investment adviser representa-tives, the individuals who actually provide the investment advice. I would add that the lengthy experience of NASAA members in the application of fiduciary duty sets us apart from SROs. Third, securities arbitration. Today, virtually every broker-deal-ers customer account contains a pre-dispute mandatory arbitration provision that forces investors to submit all disputes to mandatory arbitration run by FINRA. The only chance of recovery for most in-vestors who fall victim to wrongdoing on Wall Street is through a single...
