Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from Clinical Lectures: Delivered Before the Students of the Imperial Moscow University It is the purpose of these lectures to serve, as far as it is possible to do so in print, the same aims as are pursued by clinical instruction, namely: by proceeding from the picture of the morbid condition as it presents itself in the patient and as obtained by interrogation, physical examination and from the collected data concerning his past, to diagnosticate this morbid state, in whatever peculiar and complex form it may appear, to prescribe a plan of treatment for the same, and to execute this plan before and with the participation of the students. In relation to these last and to the practising physician, the clinical lecture is also intended to serve as a specimen of methodical practical activity, teaching the processes of interrogation, diagnosis, treatment and observation of the given disease or of the given class of diseases. Aiming first of all to make of his students practical physicians, the clinical instructor should offer to the future practitioners only what is essential, preeminently practical and absolutely requisite: methods of doubtful utility, whether of diagnosis or treatment, unnecessary superfluity of details and supposititious theorizing, have no place in the teaching of the true, conscientious clinician. The printed clinical lecture is distinguished by the same characteristics. About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books.
