Ko TTiak-byus successful Labors. --Style of Preaching. --Scene of his Successes. --Shades in his Character. --Ignorance. --Love of Knowledge. --Passion. --Habits of Prayer. From the time that Mr. Boardman became unable to labor, to more than a year after the writer of this memoir joined the mission, with the very important exception of Mrs. Boardmans invaluable and indefatigable labors with the people when they visited town, the whole watch care of the church, and the instruction of the inquirers, devolved on Ko Thah-byu; and the numbers that were baptized within this period afford the best comment on his labors. During the rains of 1831, he taught a school, as he had done the previous year, near Tshiekku, where the principal part of the Christians resided; and his diligence in this department of labor was as conspicuous as in every other in which he engaged. Some of his pupils, at the close of the school, could repeat verbatim whole Burman tracts. Early in 1832, accompanied by Ko Thah-byu, I made an exploring tour through the province. We stopped about noon the first day at Shen Mouktee, an old walled town, but reduced to an inconsiderable village. This town is remarkable for containing the most famous idol in the province, it having been found (such is the received tradition) floating up the river on a peepul log, which stopped opposite the town; and the little brass idol, from being a few inches high, has...
