White Orchard Press, United States, 2014. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 276 x 212 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Simply put, the Critical Connection Workbook will help you become a better parent of young teens. It offers every parent of young teens (ages 10-14) the opportunity to dig deeply into their beliefs, their practices, and their blind spots. It is designed to challenge even the most experienced parents to become more effective during the challenging years of early adolescence. The Critical Connection Workbook will help you analyze your own childhood experiences, your current family situation, and your future family life. Consequently, you will make action steps to form a healthier, happier family life. This thought-provoking workbook is a companion to the well-regarded book, Critical Connection: A Practical Guide to Parenting Young Teens. Individuals or small groups will move into deeper introspection, discussion, and planning about being a better parent at this crucial stage in every child's life. It's like having a personal trainer or a life coach for your family life.
